

First, we had a go at joining different materials using staples, sellotape, parcel tape and the glue gun. We noted down which ways of joining worked best.

Next, we examined a pair of ear defenders— we even took them apart to find out what was inside!

Finally, we made our own ear defenders using materials we had brought in from home and some from in school.

